Install the latest version of iTunes (9.0) and make sure to activate "Use Application Sandbox" in the security settings (look for the orange lock) The band Rhapsody, from the label Tuxedomoon is a monumental band in our history. More than 20 years have passed since the creation of their first release and I wish to provide a CDR of two of their most famous albums, "Songs of Praise" and "How to Sing". "Songs of Praise" was Rhapsody's first recording, and, moreover, an absolutely unique release. One of their most seminal works, it can only be experienced in its true form. I hope you will enjoy listening to this release of Rhapsody through digital means. On the 25th of May 1978, Mike Oldfield reached for the skies, his solo album "Hergest Ridge" was released. He toured in Europe, US and Japan and made a highlight on the tour as he played the Saxon show on the Isle of Man on 29th November 1978. This audio documentary is the result of the research by the Bookletz guys on this historic show. We have painstakingly put together this tape as the first known audio documentation of this show, this tape is probably the only copy ever made. The audio is very rich in the sound quality and the Saxon band are absolutely brilliant. An absolutely unique and great audio documentary of this legendary gig. This documentary is being made available here for the first time. It is based on multiple eyewitness accounts, extensive research and original interviews. Pristine film from the local promoter, a wonderful set of photographs and a single audio track. The first band on stage in 1974 were the Arthur Brown and the Love Generation. Pipedream's Dream is the second album by the band 'The Pipedream Machine'. It contains the song 'Born Again' as a bonus track. Some recordings from this album are being included here as well. The first album by the band 'Pipe Dream', 'Dream Machine', has been on my turntable for years. It's the first 77a5ca646e
